

I have heard that Sinclair broadcasting will be requiring their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is very disturbing, and I hope that the FCC will be taking appropriate action to see that the public airwaves are used in a way that serves the public interest.